everyone

Pearl Continental Hotel Lahore General Manager Nadeem Riaz Chaudhry visited COTHM's New Garden Town Campus to meet CEO Ahmad Shafiq and the senior management at the college.

After discussing hospitality and tourism situation in Pakistan with CEO, Nadeem Riaz visited different classes and spoke to the students who were attending their lectures.

While appreciating the state of the art facilities at COTHM, the GM said he was actually pleased to visit COTHM.

He said that COTHM was playing a very important role in making quality education accessible to the students coming from some very remote areas. He also said that it was great to see the innovative learning methods being practiced at COTHM to produce contributing human resource.

He further said that it was a good thing on the art of COTHM that it was working with local employers as well to fill the employment gap in the market.

Appreciating the curriculum being taught at COTHM, he said that “the syllabus is relevant, addresses necessary critical skills, meets international education learning standards, and offers internationally recognized certifications.”
