Four Points by Sheraton GM explains the scope of hospitality

Four Points by Sheraton General Manager Salman Asif visited COTHM and discussed the scope of the hospitality industry with the students.

In an interactive session with the students, Salman shared his personal experiences in the field and explained the nature of opportunities in the hospitality industry.

He motivated the students to be a part of this industry to become the future leaders of this field.

He also visited the flagship campus of COTHM located at New Garden Town and admired the market-oriented facilities at the campus.
